Thanks to one of our special twitter firends "kbellasierra" the Ghosts & Haunts forums are now also available on the Mobile application called TapaTalk.

The TapaTalk application is available for iPhone, iPad, Android and Blackberry and makes reading forums from mobile devices a breeze!

You can download the application from the iPhone store, or Market. Or go here:

www.tapatalk.com/

We can be found under "Ghosts & Haunts" please make sure to look us up.

You're required to have a registered account on Ghosts & Haunts to use this application with our site.
