EVPs i got from my sister's house

sorry about the sound quality. i was babysitting so i didn't expect to do any EVP sessions so after i heard knocking and footsteps from the upstairs i had to start on my phone. unfortunately it's not loud so i boosted the parts. i'll upload what i had and what i boosted. the way i listened was plugging my laptop into an amp then plugging my headphones into the amp but if u can use a regular desktop speakers should work. if u still have troubles hold a speaker to your ear. anyways. it's in order of how i got them and these are the only 2 evps i got in a 5 min session and everything was off. if u want the sound clips to judge for urself or enhance the audio so u can hear it a lil better just let me know and we can work something out.

in the NO recording you'll hear me say "If you can hear me please come to where I'm at." then the EVP saying "No" (that's what i hear), then me saying that i'm getting a chill and goose bumps.

In the HOLD IT recording you'll hear me hit a wooden chair with my hand and offer the spirits a seat then right before i say that i still have goosebumps it'll say hold it. i debunked it as it not being my breath because i did capture my breathing and it sounds nothing like that.

NO original

NO enhanced

HOLD IT original

HOLD IT enhanced

I hear the EVP's you got there. The No one is very obvious. The Hold It I'm not so sure on. I couldn't hear it until I listened to the enhanced version, even then it's a little hard to pick up. Nice catch on the No! I'll hold off judgement on the Hold It because I'm not sure on that one.
