One of the many EVP's I've caught

Okay now this EVP is just one of many I've caught. It's never different voices, it's always one of the same spirits I catch all the time. The most often is that of a young girl, and a dark presence that clearly does not like me one little bit.

Now this first one that I'm sharing with all of you is that dark entity that I often encounter. You will hear me ask 'what do you want' and the response speaks clearly for itself. It's a whisper but you can hear it almost immediately after I ask the question.

The second one you will hear ask 'You don't like when I stand up u to you do you?' Listen close because a few seconds later you will hear a whispered 'No.' You may need headphones

Keep in my mind that I was by myself and there were no males in the house at the time.

So, sorry it took me so long to get to this one. At first when I listened to the #1 EVP, I couldn't really hear anything. It sounded like there was something under the static but I figured it was just matrixing.

Well, that is until I took it and cleaned it up. I saw that someone else cleaned up the audio file but too many frequencies were introduced and it didn't keep the original resolution of the sound. So I used the newer audacity, isolated the noise, removed it and brought out the underlying sound. As I did it became quite clear what it was saying.

It sounds like 2-3 syllables followed by "Get out". I'm thinking the entire phrase may be "I want you to Get out!"

Here's the cleaned up version...

that was my fault, I'm new to audacity haha and it is definitely clearer now thank you! it just kind of adds to the nature of this place. I now have a whole folder of EVP's and I've only been here for 7 months...I'm starting to feel that whatever is here doesn't want me to be here. I come from a long line a family members that are sensitive and sometimes I really do wonder about it. I've been experiencing the paranormal throughout my whole life. No matter where I move to I'm always bombarded with stuff like this. Just in this place I've caught more than 8 different voices. But lately it's been whoever this man is. I have no idea what I did to him, but I'd like to find out before I move in the next few months.
