More EVPs

The background to these EVPs. I was home alone, my fiance and his mom went to the casino for his birthday. I was just watching tv and I started hearing all this stuff(Voices, walking, knocking, etc.) I really didn't pay much attention to it at first until I started seeing shadows and the noises got louder. I said 'Look you need to stop and leave me alone.' It just got louder like it was trying to make me communicate with it so I gave in and set up the audio. I was angry and annoyed because it wouldn't leave me alone.

The first on you'll hear me ask 'Do I p*ss you off?' I believe I got a response to that. To me it sounds like a mans voice

Here it is cleaned up

Now this next one I caught was not even a minute after the first and it sound like a growl to me like I made it mad. (I was provoking it)

Keep in mind I was alone and no men were there.
