That is more proof to me that these spirits are no different on the other side than they were when they were here. They wish to be respected and honestly cared about [not used]. I will use this mindset/approach when doing my own paranormal work. I will not use 95% of what I see on the paranormal shows on TV; regardless of how many investigations they claim to have under their belts.

Wow! That is impressive! The "Be good to me" is very very obvious. I don't think you can dispute that.

The second half, I can't quite make out. Sounds like more syllables. It doesn't sound like a menacing voice. Just a slightly needy one.

Very nice catch!

I've been editing this EVP for a while. Appling noise reduction and amplification, I found two voices. The is a very faint voice followed by the main voice. It is a conversation. The hair on my arms is on end.

GREAT EVP!
