the Indiana Ghost Hunters and I are near the back door of the kitchen where John Dillenger had escaped. The ollivious X says Dillenger. I am amazed by the response of this since it was on dictionary mode and this name is not programed in the 2000+ word list.

Thanks to our friends at www.facebook.com/pages/Indiana-Ghost-Hunters/196736570357644 great group of hunters

You're right, amazing that it would pick that word out of the vast repository. Was that all the device, or were you talking in that EVP recording as well?

crystalcross we were just walking around i was showing him around at the time i told him that back door was where Dillenger escaped. After that we did not get any significant words. i have noticed at this location things happen and certian periods of the night. seems to be around 11pm to about 2pm there is activity. I wouldnt say this location in highly haunted.

If its at a specific time (11pm-2am) then chances are its residual of some sort.

Did you notice any intelligent interactions, as in were there any direct replies to questions? Or was it something which was likely said at some point in time.

"How was your/How low is your/ hallow (?points?) is you/How long is/How Old is your.. what?...Dilinger../I lovez your free-zer -Wha-? -Dilinger!" indeed... as much as I could clear for myself

Ok played with it a bit.
