EVP from former Brothels in Deadwood, SD

_____

This EVP came from our first investigation of the former Brothels in Deadwood, SD. Very active location. The EVP was captured just after the audio recorder was placed. The group can be heard in the distant background. We set our equipment out and were leaving the location to go eat while it got dark. The interesting thing about this audio clip is that it was captured on two separate recorders in two different rooms. They were across a hallway from each other, about 30 feet apart. This recording is considerably louder than the other, which we feel indicates it was coming from closer to this recorder. I'll try and get the audio from the other clip as well. We feel like it says "Madame Gwendolyn". Of course, the women who ran brothels were called Madames. We did not find any reference to a Gwendolyn in any research. We also feel that the fact that it was caught on 2 recorders in 2 rooms at the same time indicates this is a disembodied voice. Had we been there(instead of leaving), we may have heard it. Enjoy!
