Please tell me what you think of this EVP. GOOD or BAD. This takes place in my home (multiple deaths have accured). My nephew is taking digital pictures in the background along with the Ghost Box running as well. Something caught my attention on one portion just before we began the Ghost Box session. I hear something...like a cry out. I dont want to say what i think until i hear what you think. You will hear the portion of the recording then a beep indicating the 3 isolated replays of the section that is catching my attention. Also this is the raw audio coming from my digital recorder. Nothing has been amplified nor altered. PLEASE respond with what your TRUE thoughts are.
