dreams and presense

Im new sorry. Ive been having dreams, normal weird dreams. Theres this faceless man that is always in my dreams that just stands there watching me. When i finally realize he isnt apart of the dream he disappears. I also feel the same man when im awake. I dont see him but i feel him watching me. Im not scared but i know my house isnt haunted and this didnt start until a year ago. Sometimes ill feel him touching me while im awake. Im not on any meds, my doctors say im fine. Any ideas to what is happening?

It started after i had a dream about a wolf guarding me in a dream that said a song title das tier in mir. And it was the same song my boyfriend at the time was listening to as he fell asleep. However we were not together in the same town when the dream occured. The weird part is i only heard the song once 5 months before the dream. After that i had this guy in my dreams and always around me. But always faceless and i can never get a pic when hes around.

The boyfriend has been gone a long time, we arent together and i moved on. Hes still alive so i couldnt be him.

Any ideas or suggestions to find the answers?

these are the lyrics to the song translated in English if this helps anyone:

The animal inside me

The woods are covered

in the light of the moon

My home is the forest

covered by starlight

It is the animal inside me!

Who creats the greed for you!

Love you to bits!

Can you feel my desire?

Dark clouds and dark thoughts,

the fullmoon night brakes my everry barrier

Inside me wakes the greed for the hunt.

Feel this lust for blood now and here.

Deep in the night the glowing stars

a sweet sent pulls me into the distance.

But attention cause the night slowly rises my beast and the hunter inside me awakes!

The woods are covered

in the light of the moon

My home is the forest

covered by starlight

It is the animal inside me!

Who creats the greed for you!

Love you to bits!

Can you feel my desire?

Strange thoughts, wild desires

The desire for the soft flesh of breasts

Want to tear, want to bite, want to maul, want to shred want to stalk my pray during a passionate hunt

Emberred eyes are following your track,

the sent carries above a large meadow

I'm changing into an animal, a creature of the night.

I am a hunter under the moon until the morning rises.

The woods are covered

in the light of the moon

My home is the forest

covered by starlight

Ahhh!

I am becoming an animal!

Ahhh!

I am becoming an animal!

It is the animal inside me!

Who creats the greed for you!

Love you to bits!

Can you feel my desire?

It is the animal inside me! (Background: Silva in lumine)

Who creats the greed for you!

Love you to bits! (Background: Silva in lumine)

Can you feel my desire?

The woods are covered

in the light of the moon

My home is the forest

covered by starlight

covered by starlight

covered by starlight

covered by starlight

Wolves are very protective totem animals. I believe this person is your guide who was telling you that there was something inside of you that needed to be set free. Since you've broken up with your boyfriend, my guess is that what he was guiding you to.

Thanks. He broke up with me. And he said the wolf was claiming me as his. But my question is the guy that keeps popping up in my dreams, and i feel the guy always watching me and following me. Sometimes touching me. How do i find out who he is and what he wants? I just woke up from a dream and this time a wolf was with the guy. I try to find out in my dreams who he is but he always disappears.
