Happy Birthday Rob [Crystal Cross]

_____

Mrs. Matrix and I would to take this time to wish Rob the happiest of birthdays.

I don't want to start any rumors, so I won't tell anyone that Crystal and I met here on the internet [lol], but that chance encounter gave us the opportunity of meeting Rob in person and we're now happy to call him friend.

Rob, you're the kind of soul that doesn't come around often in life.

Happy birthday my friend.
