Seeing a Woman

Posted by undertaker1 - 06 Jun 2011 14:54

The last 2 weeks i have seen a woman only her face everyday. She looks to be in mid 30's,slimmed faced woman,with long brown hair,red lips,and very thin eyebrows. This person sleeps on her left side lways and never has her eyes open.

Does nyone know who this may be ? Most spirits come out and tell me what they want or i can figure it out but not this one and i feel i should be finding out what this is and what it wants. Any help would be great.

Ya sometimes they're not ready, they have unfinished business or they just don't want to go into the light. But we have the ability to sense when they want to go and give us the information to send to their loved ones, so they can cross over.
