Looking For Haunted Locations - Hernando County FL

Posted by steelreality - 20 Jul 2011 17:28

I'm reaching out to see if anyone knows of any haunted locations open to the public in Hernando County Florida. I'm also interested in surrounding counties such as Pasco, Citrus, & Hillsborough.

I am a long time enthusiast, and a beginning hunter. Any info. on locations is appreciated!

Thanks!

Try Spring Hill Cemetery in Brookesville. We haven't tried it yet. Also try Oaklawn and Myrtle Hill Cemetery in Tampa. That should get you started.

Thanks so much for the reply! Brooksville is just a stone's throw away. I'll try there first.

Tampa - I don't know about that. Sometimes the living are more scary than the dead at night there! ;o)

Thanks again!
