Joining Forces !

It's official! The St. Francis Paranormal Research Society based in nearby Jonesboro, AR and my team Greene County Paranormal Investigations have joined forces.

This is a first for both teams and while the hierarchy and chain of command has already been worked out, we still have a lot of work to do. One of the most important tasks at hand is narrowing down team membership. It was a tough to decision to make, but between the founder of SFPRS, Billy Vanderbilt and I we felt it is necessary.

Congratulations and best of luck and continued success for your combined teams! Are you going to change your team name or use one or the other ??Just wondering. You are so blessed to be in the beautiful state of Arkansas! As a solo investigator (prior to forming Bluebonnet Paranormal Research in Texas) I investigated a couple of locations on my own in Heber Springs, Hope and Stuttgart as I have family that all go way back there (my dad was the only one to defect to Texas). Beautiful state, beautiful people God bless ya'll!

In this time when "Consolidation" is a buzz-word that nobody really wishes to ever hear, its really great to know that it can also be a positive thing.

Its great to see that teams can work together and consolidate efforts to form a bigger and stronger entity. It shows that the spirit of the adventurer can win out over the need to be competative. I applaud both your efforts and look forward to working with you as a stronger and combined unit.

Kudos my friends!
