i was just curious to see if neone was at the rhodes hall investigation with joe chin, nate lien and chip coffey on jan 13? my mother and i went, and it was phenomenal! this was our first official ghost hunt so to say, and we actually caught a few evps, i had my purse pulled, we smelled cigar smoke, and saw lots of shadows blocking out windows on the staircase. we had nice flashlight responses in our group also, ..it was so cool! one of the other groups was in the basement, and they had a spirit box, and they were asking questions, one being do the other men here bother you, ..and the clearest response came, it was a male voice that said "we will skin you alive" ...it was sooooo cool! i just wanted to share this, i am working on getting my evps uploaded and will share them when i do. so if neone else was there, please share your experiences please!

Starry,

So glad that it was a positive experience for you. And also glad that you had someone there to experience it with you (your mother). Certainly sounds like you have the bug, and the quest is growing.
One thing I would like to say is, although its great to learn from those who have done it before... ...use their knowledge as a resource, but not a gospel. Its new investigators like yourself who have the potential to bring totally new ideas into the mix us ol-foggies never thought of because we're very set and comfortable in what and how we do things. So, learn and use caution, but don't be afraid to add your own flare as well.
