Is there a light beside you in this picture. The glow in the left top corner looks to be a light source showing in this one.

that was my finger, if you look to the left the "statue is not a statue there was no statue. then if you enlarge an look in the middle of the the picture on the ground, you have to enlarge it, you will see a head, of what looks to me as a soldier ( alot of the 1812 and civil war took place here) his head and shoulders on the ground. Down load it and enlarge it and scroll to the middle of the picture in between the lights. And the weird thing is that it is stairing at the kid entity that looks like a statue.
