Ok. I have not done anything to the pic. My phone took it sideways, thus its sideways so tilt your head to the left. The imprint on my bed while he sat here tongiht.

Yup can clearly see the imprint of where he's sitting. For some history, this is while we were all chatting. Leslie was communicating with a spirit who sat beside her. And while he sat there he made an imprint on the bed. She then pulled out the phone camera and took a picture of it right there on the spot while were were in chat. Excellent image!
