My cousin is an Episcopalian minister. Look at all the orbs.

lol....right after posting this pic, I saw something in the forum about orbs being dust and rain drops....not spirits. I don't believe they are all dust, and I don't believe they are spirits. I so however believe they are energy of some sort. I am not a paranormal investigator, or a camera expert, but I do know what I have experienced first hand.

I would like to know how we know how this all works anyway? I am sure that we won't really know for sure until we pass on right?
