I just had to come in here and tell you what happend to me this morning. I am off today so I was sleeping a bit later than usual when I heard a voice...loud and clear telling me that it was pouring rain outside. I thought it was my husband so I looked over and no one was there, my husband was down stairs taking a shower. The voice was male and deep. I don't know if I was dreaming this or not and it wasn't raining outside at all, but maybe I could hear the shower running and dreamt that he was telling me? What do you all think? I do know that I was awake instantly when I heard the voice. I often feel my hair being pulled as I watch tv in bed at night but I don't feel frightened, except when it happens while I'm watching Paranormal State or Ghost Stories...lol
