A Name

Is there anyone out there that can take just a name of someone that has passed away and tell me things about that person or contact that person? His name is Max Kupzyk

I have not even tested those waters. I really never have the time to meditate long enough before I am interrupted. Dogs, kids...ect. I would love if I had that ability and sometimes I will get flashes of things that come to me as a result of having heard someones name or seeing their picture. When this happens I am only able to piece things...sometimes with accuracy, sometimes without a conclusion.

I hope someone here can help. Have you tried some research? Maybe Tress can run cards on him?

MCPRS~ I don't know if you got my PM but my friend suggested that Max has been house bound for 8 yrs., he is around 90 yrs. old and has a german background. Also is this a grandfather or great uncle? Just wondering.

He would be in his 90's now if he were still alive. He died about 5 years ago. He was my grandfather. He was pretty much home bound his last few years. I took care of him. He was German but that could be determined from his last name (which is mine as well.) Makes me wonder if he is still hanging around his old house.

Does your friend have any other feelings about his life?

Are you looking for something specific? Maybe something he left behind for you...

Not anything specific. Him and my grandmother Marta, who died 10 years ago, were the members of my family that I were the closest too.

Does Eselin or Nan mean anything to you? Just out of curiosity.

Also you said not anything 'specific' are you looking for anything at all is really the question I should have asked.

No those words don't mean anything that i can think of.

Anything thing that they wanted me to have I would love to find.
