Just wanted to Introduce myself
Posted by LeslieAValentin - 13 May 2011 18:28

My name is Leslie, I live in Bentonville, Arkansas. I've had the gift to see, hear, sense, feel emotions and sometimes talk with those in the spirit world since I was a child. Right now, I basically access the web part of things via my phone, and so am not always near a computer. However, I am on Twitter as well as a facebook account (my personal page) if someone needs to reach me. I am always accessible that way as well as via phone.

I look forward to meeting you all and getting to know about you.

Have a wonderful weekend!

Leslie

Welcome aboard. I've been to Bentonville many times. I spent some time in Rogers, Ar.

Glad to have you here, and look forward to your input on the forums and chats.
