Readings and Chat Channel Time

First off, I want to thank everyone who's been showing up in our nightly chats to help connect individuals with passed family members or other sensitives. Its really a large part of the site, and its an invaluable service.

I'm noticing that as we rapidly grow, a larger number of professionals are interested in helping members out in chat. So perhaps now is the time to start discussion with individuals interested in giving readings in public chat.

Once we know how much interest there is in doing this, then we can discuss time slots so that we can make sure that anyone who needs help is helped.

So at this point I open this discussion up to anyone interested. As we know Undertaker and Sixsense already have been and continue to be on the forefront of chat readings and helping members out. Who else may be interested in doing this?

I'm interested in doing card readings for whoever needs spiritual guidance, I am also willing to do numerology readings for people.

Thank you CC for allowing us to do these readings. We hope to get some of you to join. This is not only a great way to train yourself but also to help a member who may not have a ability communicate with a family memeber or anyone for that matter.

Your abilities can only grow by usuing them and training yourself, so if you are new or not in control of your ability here is a great chance to use it and learn. We are not there to laugh or ridicule you in any way if you make mistakes or not always correct in your reading. We are here to help and help you grow as we still grow as well. I don't believe we will ever be done learning as a psychic/sensitive but can become very strong and learn great control.

So please if you think you have a ability and would like to join and jump in do so we want you to be a part of this as well. It is a great pleasure to do readings and help others, so get in and feel what that is like for you.

Search,

What time slot would you be interested in taking, and what day/days of the week.

Also how would you like to facilitate this? Or just want to play it by ear and decide on how to do it after you try it?

Please let me know.

Thanks!

Thanks Danny,

If you are interested in hosting some readings, please let me know of the time slot you're wanting to take. And the days of the week you want to start with. I'll post Calendar Appt, and that way we can all arrange for our times and make sure nothing interferes with anything else.

Thanks!

Yes, its been a great resource and help for a lot of people. You've done a lot with the 9-11pm Readings! Great work! And I think if some others can slowly follow suite then we'll have a rich diverse environment almost around the clock for all of our great members.

I agree very much CC. We love to be there to help others with anything we can, i do believe there are some of you that can help in this and would enjoy it very much. We post these s readings to allow people who may be new to understand a little of what we are doing, but these are more of channeling spirits or allowing them to come like they do everyday. So if you were confused about what is happening hope that clears it up for you.

As soon as I establish a time frame that I am guaranteed to do, I'll let you know!  I think I'd be a great asset in part of our G&H's Reading team.  I might focus more on the late times that serves the Pacific Standard Time clock for people here in PST regions who might need advices or tarot readings.  Other than that, I do hope as for all sensitives, if we continue to lend a hand for the general public without expecting anything in return, our skills and abilities will be greatly improved and learn more about others with experiences.  Something that makes G&H unique from other sites. A charitable thing to help others! =]

I  would like to help as well. I am still learning my Tarot deck, but all that I have given readings to in chat can attest to the fact that I am getting better at it.  Just let me know what I can do.
