We are facing the third volume of the magnificent project that led Iker Jiménez and which was composed of 24 books each dedicated to a different puzzle. In this case "haunted house" is a journey that Contreras Francisco Gil, made by a few houses or places of our country is the paranormal phenomena that appear type "poltergeist". The work begins with a quick look at the history of haunted houses, since the first manifestations included in texts of Pliny, to which it is assumed as the first poltergeist case, that of "Mr. hoof" in the neighborhood of Arcadia New York. The home of "Touch Roque" in Valencia, the "Duende burner" in Zaragoza, the combustion of Pitango farmhouse in Almeria, the museum of the dead Arab Cáceres, the famous case of the Diputación de Granada, El Museo Reina Sophia and her famous "Ataulfo" the ghosts of the National Auditorium and cursed his office and a few other cases, are subject to a quick and interesting overview with precise documentation. A good book to take the research material and leave immediately.
