Victoria, BC - Any Teams Already Out There?

Hi,

I saw this forum and think it's a great idea! Although I don't want to form my own group, I am happy to become part of one in the Victoria, BC area. I'm a former Crime Scene Investigator who's skills could be useful to you. If I am what you are looking for, drop me a line.

Nicky

Thanks for posting this! I did some searching and there are a few Paranormal Investigation agencies near you.

Vancouver Paranormal Society

Vancouver Paranormal

Vancouver Island Paranormal

Just for a few! Good luck, and a hearty wave hello to our northern neighbors!
