hey I'm still looking for a team I've gone on another hunt and am considered a reserve with a group that's 4hrs away I have now a digital recorder a digital camera k2 meter and digital emf reader. The leader said I can look around for other teams to get more experiences if anyone is local areaeven not local something that has more hunts located in my area or with few hr drive from where i'm in vermont near hanover nh that would be great let me know asap no criminal record former security experience great work ethic just trying to help families and I would like to find out how sensitive I really am. Thanks. contact me.
