little girl who scratched me in my dream

I used to work in a warehouse in the nightshift. The building had been purported as being haunted by other workers. It didn't matter to me, I enjoyed the people I worked with. Anyway, I started seeing apparitions around, a little boy, a man and a little girl. Because I have kids, I think the little girl attached herself to me. My daughters saw her but they said she was mean. So I tried doing things to clean the house to get rid of her, and I thought it worked. Well one night I was dreaming I was walking along the forest. I became tired and layed down. Well the little girl was with me and I said to her I got rid of you, you are not welcome around me. I said this to her while laying on the ground. She said that I couldn't get rid of her that she would always be around! It is important to share that while I was laying on the ground I was on my left side with my left arm outstretched with my palm facing up. The little girl squatted down beside me and reached out to touch me. I told her she couldn't touch me and she said you can't stop me ran her finger up my arm. Then she looked over her shoulder and said very quickly I have to go. She then got up and ran off. My alarm went off and I woke up. I looked at my arm because it was itchy and where the little girl had touched me in my sleep, there was a single scratch mark up my arm. It was me and my kids, we did not have any pets. I do not believe that this spirit was actually a little girl. I think of it as a beast. Just wanted to share.

Seems very intense, and I agree, I don't think this is a little girl, or at least she isn't now. Maybe she was and her soul image was merged with or taken over by something more sinister.
