a spirit that is attached to you..goes with you wherever you go..you feel the energy of this attachment..you feel the energy touch you..it feels real..mediums have said it is a strong spirit..but on the lowest level..so it still craves certain things it had in life..

This could be one of may things..

Could be a spirit guide, could be feeding off your energy.. could be your imagination and mediums are just telling you what you want to hear so they can earn from you.

We'd need a bit more detail about exatly what's going on, why you feel this spirit may be attached to you and things like that.

There are many explanations as to why you might feel something touch you.. a breeze of air, a hair moving on your skin..

if it is my guide, then it is crossing the line...wish it was my imagination then i could go to the doctors...although the way it is. i may end up there..it is keeping me awake by the energy..i have had it for over 2 years..did not start till my husband passed..then i saw him in 2 visions..plus his face is the only one i see in dreams trying to have a sexual relationship..i have felt ice cold hands on me..many things...i know this is a hard subject to understand, but mediums at church say it does go on..even amongst theirselves...i have listened to afew stories..if you need to ask any questions..feel free..also my nephew has equipment and as captured orbs around me...

thank you for reply..i have tried hard to communicate..but i cannot hear...except all i see is my husband in dreams..this did not happen untill he passed..then cold air under covers, tingling on legs..then went onto private parts..cold hands on me..this energy is strong..also puts astrol travel on me..i am not sleeping much with this..mediums have felt this energy..but could not make it cross..although one couple did, well said they made one cross, and left behind someone they thouht was friendly...that could make some sense, because when this all started the energy felt stronger..plus tried to penitrate..which made me ill...this energy does same thing, but like it;s learning...i understand all this is hard to understand..i find it hard living with it...i have thouht about going to the doctors,so i can tell none believers i have had tests done..i already have had hormones done, and all ok..but it is a hard subject to tell a doctor, without him thinking i am a nutter..but this is something i wont give up on..for i know this kind of thing does go on..

1. Spirit Guides are never going to feel like an attached spirit. They are assigned to us well before birth, help us be born and are always with us in the background. They never feed off of our energy. They are much more highly evolved (you don't get to be a spirit guide otherwise) and do not need our energy to manifest.

2. When did your husband pass (sorry to hear this BTW). Was it before or after this spirit became attached. Is it possible the attached spirit IS your husband?

hi...my husband passed 4 years ago..then 2 years later this all started..i felt his presencearound me..saw him in visions..and in many strange dreams also..i have always felt it is him..some mediums say it is a sranger..afew said it was my husband..some said they had crossed this spirit over..but i knew it was still with me..night time for me is not something i like anymore..i sleep with a light on..telly on..often i am kept awake..if i thought for one moment all this was in my head, i would go to the doctors..but i know this is all happening..i get scared it will harm me, or send me crazy..i don't understand why nothing works, and how if my husband he could do this to me...do you think this spirit is earth bound ?or can they cross over and still do this ? and why don't loved ones, or my guide help me ?for this is not right or normal..
