Psychic Woah!!!

Posted by dannykinns - 29 Jun 2011 17:54

Maria Igneri, psychic/medium, gave me my first official reading. She had given me an AMAZING experience I would not forget! She helped me understand about what it means to be a psychic and she was an example of a courteous and caring person as well. She given me opportunities to explain myself and my situation, and helped me find a solution.

She gave me a reading that made me more proud of myself and my abilities and I just wanted to thank her for that! As a beautiful friend and loving person, thank you so much Maria!

If you would like to to be given a reading, check out her website at www.SpiritualMaria.com

Or you can call her at 347-291-1992

As for other potential psychics in GnH, Six and Undertaker, thank you guys as well for creating a more atmospheric site to allow others the opportunities to explore in their abilities and helped new members understand the spiritual realm.

Thank you Danny. We try to help people not only tune in their abilities but also want to help people in general. Not too many places you can go and get this at no cost. This is a gift and i would feel bad charging someone for something i recieved for nothing. So glad to help anyone that needs it. Thank you all for coming into chat and allowing us to show you our abilities and also support us and the site.

Thanks you so much Danny for letting know about me and for letting know about yourself and others!

Being a psychic medium is not an easy path, like I explained you in your reading. It takes a lot of self exploration before opening to others. In your case Danny, I hope that you already bought your note book, because soon you will get over your "I'm a medium?" acceptance stage, and just keep your tarots ready. winks

Hugs,

Maria

UT I do have to agree greatly with you that www.ghostsnhaunts.com has created more than just another paranormal/psychic site, is creating a paranormal/psychic GUILD, with endless fruition.

I used to think same as you about not charging for my psychic medium readings. Took a lot of time and effort to finally convinced me otherwise, and that's why I will try to keep a very affordable price for my readings. Website building and sustaining aint easy and is costly. As I log into this site I keep visualizing my site Ad here, and truly wanted it here. Sites like this one should be promoted among us, nothing beats up that kind of promotion. (BTW, I felt so happy when I logged now and saw 77 chatting, wow!! wooott..jumping fast there now.

Hugs,

Maria

Yes there has been alot more chatters as of recent. It is nice to have the support of this site and allow all of us even if you don't have a ability to share experiences and things of the paranormal. I think that this has allowed alot of people to be themselves and has helped alot of people realize that there are alot of others in the world with the same beliefs so never give up. It will never get to where we can be freely open to the world but to have a place where we can share with friends is beyong gret to me.

If dealing with spirits is considered paranormal, I had my share. But seances are very private at this part of the world, don't know of any recorded session. Had been checking out the videos, very nice places. What I like the most of this site if that gives one the opportunity of chatting with people that has the same interest in the spiritual world.

Hugs,

Maria

Never knew seances were wholly private. So its just like exorcisms I believe. For the privacy of the victim, or whoever is involved.

Here in the Caribbean they are. No recordings are allowed. As far as I know and seen.
