"The visitor"

It's 1:30 am now. I was in bed, trying to sleep. At 12:30 I woke up to see a flash of light and a small figure dash away as fast I it could. About 1:00 this morning I felt a burning sensation on my legs, thigh and stomach.

I got of bed to see what what was going on. When I looked, there weren't any scratches. But my skin was red , looked like ti has been burned, and feeling like it was on fire. And still feels this way.

Many in here know my story, and what I have been going through. I have prayed, asked for help, surrounded myself with light. But to no avail, I know he's here, waiting. I don't know were else to turn right now. And the feeling of being abandon and alone has taken over me.

I may not be myself tomorrow, or later for that matter. So if you should talk to me, and I seem different, please do what you all do best, help me, please.

There are no more fears for I have taken over, this one is mine, her soul for me to keep...Thank you for your help, he knows who I speak...

Lori,

Remember you are the one in control here, see it for what it is...fear. I too have prayed for you and sent all the angels I can, they are with you at all times. Raise your consciousness, it will stop hauting you when you stare it in the face and say "thank you for sharing but no thank you, I want no part of you anymore" You are loved here, just stay connected, we will get you through this, you are not alone, I know I for one am there with you in spirit, I feel your pain and I know what you're going through, I had similar experiences, scratched on the face, scracthes on the walls, it was drawn to be because I didn't allow the healing yet. u will get there, u will see the light, just keep focused and know you are walking through and you're scaring the hell out of it. Keep moving foward, you are so close to overcoming it, thats why it seems so strong but its not, its all manipulation, it preys on your fears. u must fight for your inner peace. You are stronger and it has no power over you, believe that! Love ya Huggggggssss!

Lori,

Prayers and love and light surround you. Fear is the weapon, the fear you felt as a little 6 year old girl. That fear is no longer necessary and you must confront this evil and banish is from your life. We will help you all we can with the weapons we have but I truly think it is going to take some"big guns" to come to you and help you overcome this. Would you be willing to allow people to come help you? This community has rescources that can deal with situations like yours, but YOU are the key ingredient. Without your willingness to fight this with your whole heart and soul nothing can change.

We love you Lori.

Let us get the help to you that you need.

Light and Love surround you.
