Hiya fellow ghost hunting ghost bustin' Buddies ;o) Just a short note to ask each and everyone of you to consider donating blood and give the gift of LIFE this holiday season!! Please consider asking your friends and family also. There's NO better feeling then preserving life. We are SO short on blood in our ERs this time of season so get out there and Give the gift of LIFE! xo hugs Kimber

Hey The bone marrow registry saves hundreds of thousands of lives per year too!!! Don't feel bad, that's AWESOME! I donate faithfully every 8 weeks! It's kind of an awesome feeling to wonder who's walking around with a lil part of You in them. ;o)
